Gemuki Draws Near!

@_Gemuki

I really like how Dragon Quest is reworking some of their old designs to be more respectfull towards woman representation and desexualise them like they did wit the warrior from Dragon Quest III back in Dragon Quest Rivals, the card game and now with Maya in Monsters 3

Same can be said about Maam from Dragon Quest The Adventure of Dai where they hid some leg skin with some tights in the new anime and changed some inappropriate scenes from the manga too
